
AFFIDAVIT OF FINANCIAL SUPPORT - GRADUATE APPLICANT

Students who are admitted to an graduate degree program and intend to become an applicant for an F-1 visa must verify support in the amount of at least $34,660 in order to obtain Form I-20.

This document must be accompanied by a financial statement in the name of the sponsor. Acceptable financial support documentation verifying that you possess sufficient funding can be provided in the form of:

- ✓ A bank statement(s) from checking, savings, and/or certificate of deposit.
- ✓ A letter from bank on letterhead, stating the date the account opened, average balance, and current balance.
- ✓ Official scholarship sponsorship letter or memorandum verifying amount, source, and dates of award.

Please note that Penn West at California thoroughly examines all financial support documentation submitted by the applicant in support of their application. Penn West at California representatives may verify the validity of documentation directly with the sponsor.

A payment plan is available only with approval of the Office of Student Accounts (phone: 1.724.938.4431). Late payment is cause for termination of status.

Note that the Flywire payment service should be used to make any payment to California University of Pennsylvania at:
